STOP WATER WASTE

ALL CITY WATER PATRONS MUST INSTALL METERS.

COUNCIL TAKES ACTION

Ordinances Recommended By Public Works Board Adopted—Penalties For Failure to Observe Rules.

Following the reading of certain ordinances recommended by the Board of Public Works and adopted by the council at its regular meeting last night, all consumers of city water now on a flat rate will be required to install meters, and all users of water will be required to secure permits before making connections to mains and laterals. Notice must also be given to the city when houses in which city water is used are vacated. The ordinances provide penalties for refusal or neglect to comply with their requirements.

The plan is an effort of the Board of Public Works to bring the city water department up to a high standard of efficiency and to conserve, as far as possible all waste of water and power. There are now over 900 users of city water, about 100 homes having been on a flat rate. Under the new plan meters will be installed either on the rental plan, the city looking after them regularly and keeping them in repair, or they may be purchased outright from the city at a small advance above actual cost.

After several months of careful investigation it was found from records that were kept, that there was a large waste of both water and power caused from leaks, failure of persons to advise the city when water was turned on and from excessive use of water by flat rate persons.

In order to give the patrons efficient service at a minimum cost and to conserve all the resources possible the Board was forced to take into consideration several things; a higher price is being paid for coal than was formerly the case; the price for labor for operating and maintenance has increased and the extra power needed to pump the waste was a considerable item.

These things had the fullest consideration of the Board at a meeting on Friday night and it was decided to ask the council to pass the ordinances necessary to effect a conservation.

Wellington Dusenberry, the new manager of the water department advised M. E. Ford, chairman of the Board, that he would arrive from Trenton this evening and would be ready to take charge of the plan Monday morning.

SCOUTS PLAN BIG MEETING

Will Arrange Public Program When War Service Emblems Are Received From the Government.

At the regular meeting last night of Troop I, Boy Scouts, plans were made for a public meeting when the war service emblems won by the Scouts in the second Liberty bond campaign are received. A program has not yet been arranged, but some interesting exercises are promised when the Scouts receive this recognition from the government of service rendered.

On next Saturday, November 10, it is planned to hike to Burlington Junction and congratulate the Scouts there on their showing in the Liberty Bond campaign, when bonds were sold in the sum of $21,000.

There will be a special meeting tomorrow afternoon of members of the Troop at the home of Scoutmaster A. M. Crooke, First and Walnut streets, when some new activities will be discussed and a number of applications for membership will be acted on. Any boy twelve years of age who desires to become a member of the troop is asked to be at the meeting.

POSTPONE ACTION

DOCTORS WILL MEET AGAIN TO DISCUSS SERVICE CALL.

A "HOOVERIZED" DINNER

Banquet at Elks Club Was Followed by Discussion of Professional Matters by St. Joseph Doctors.

Just who among the physicians of the county will respond to the government's call for doctors for the Medical Reserve Corps is as yet undetermined. A meeting of medical men of the county yesterday afternoon at the Elks Club to discuss the matter was productive of nothing of a definite nature and it was decided to hold another meeting the first of the week. Visiting physicians, a conservation dinner and the Normal-Tarkio football game proved counter attractions too strong, and so it was left open for further action.

On the program following the dinner was Dr. F. H. Spencer of St. Joseph, who spoke on "Tumors of the Colon;" Dr. J. J. Bansbach, who discussed "Pathological Conditions of the Bladder," and Dr. H. W. Carle on "Gastric and Duodenal Ulcers."

Besides the Maryville physicians the following were out of town guests: Dr. L. A. Nigh, Parnell; Dr. Egbert Crowson, Parnell; Dr. A. D. Barnet, Guilford; Dr. M. M. Rhoades, Graham; Dr. E. L. Morgan, Graham; Dr. M. M. Pollard, Barnard; Dr. Joseph C. Manning, Skidmore; Dr. J. E. Pierpoint, Skidmore; Dr. D. E. Fergurson, Elmo; Dr. C. W. Kirk, Hopkins; Dr. D. A. Sargent, Hopkins; Dr. E. L. Crowson, Pickering; Dr. F. B. Wiley, Pickering; Dr. B. T. Quigley, Holt county; Dr. Ira Williams, Mound City.

A number of the visiting physicians and their wives were entertained by the local doctors after the meeting at the football game at the Normal.

THE CANVASS CONTINUES

Preliminary Reports Indicate That Registration Will Be Almost 100 Per Cent of Population.

Here is the food pledge. If you have signed it, pass it on to a friend. You may not see a solicitor. The county chairman wants to make sure that no one has been overlooked. Mr. and Mrs. William Osborn, of Ireland school district were the first to report yesterday with sixty signers, almost 100 per cent of the residents of the district.

George Rimel of Lincoln township reports today that 99 per cent of the residents will be registered. Mr. Rimel also reports district chairmen have been named as follows: Pleasant View, C. M. Brittain; White Oak, R. Harley; Washington, Will Merrigan; McCann, John Brady. The workers report that there are few who have refused to sign the pledge.

In the city Miss Jessie Parcher, assistant county chairman has named captains in all the wards as follows: First, Mrs. S. G. Gillam; second, Mrs. L. R. Holt; third, Miss Parcher; fourth, Daniel Miller. These with their assistants began work yesterday and expect to practically finish the canvass by this evening. HUNTER INSTANTLY KILLED

C. E. Lively, Living Near Skidmore, Meets Instant Death When Gun Is Accidentally Discharged.

C. E. Lively, a farmer living seven miles northwest of Skidmore was accidentally shot and killed yesterday afternon while out duck hunting. Mr. Lively, accompanied by Ray and Geo. Carter, two friends, left home shortly after noon going to the Bilby farm a few miles distant where ducks were reported to be plentiful. Several of the birds were killed and on attempting to recover one of them from the water Mr. Lively used the butt of his gun to push some weeds ou tof the way when a twig caught the trigger. The accidental discharge struck Mr. Lively in the abdomen and death followed almost instantly.

Mr. Lively was about thirty-five years old and is survived by a wife and two small children, a boy about seven and a little girl of four. Funeral services are expected to be held Sunday afternoon.

GARAGE ROBBED OF $42.65

Thief Enters Office at Wray's While No One Was Looking—Normal Also Visited by Miscreants.

A thief watched his chance when no one was in the office at Wray's garage on North Main street late yesterday afternoon and relieved the cash register of $42.65. George Sellers, employed at the garage left the office to go to the back of the building, leaving the office unoccupied for a short time. When he returned the cash register was open and the money gone.

The theft was reported to the police, but so far no clue has been found that would lead to information concerning the robber.

Miscreants also broke into the rooms at the Normal last night and took a quantity of candy, apples and other things on display in the domestic science classes. A screen window was pried open and entrance effected.

EASY ONE FOR TARKS

PLAYED TAG ALL OVER GRIDIRON WITH MARYVILLE NORMALS.

TARKIO 74--BEARCATS 0

Normals Lost Their Pep When Richards Was Forced to Quit—F. Brown Played Star Game At Center.

Before the largest crowd of the season and in the game which meant more than any other to Maryville fans, the Normal football team allowed the light Tarkio team to walk away with a 74-0 victory. The only thing that kept the score from going higher was the provision in the rules that the game shall continue for only an hour.

The one bright spot was the play of Forrest Brown at center. Entering school last year without any football experience, Brown made the team and played every game of the season. He has continued to play in all the games this season and has yet to meet his match in his position. He deserves an all-star berth.

Walter Shilt at end has also played a good, consistent game all season. Verne Pickens played a good game yesterday, and it can be truthfully said that Earl Miller tried.

For Tarkio, Robison and Orr were the big ground gainers. Robison scored five touchdowns and kicked eight out of eleven goals. Orr is the best open field runner that has appeared on the Normal field this year. He made one touchdown.

"Big Bill" Richards, the Normal's best linesman was hurt in the first scrimmage and was forced to leave

A NEW PARKING PLAN

NORTH AND SOUTH MAIN TO BE A BARRED ZONE.

STREET IS TOO NARROW

Council Orders New Ordinance to Meet Requirements — Street Wagons Will Be Refused License.

Congestion of traffic and consequent danger of accidents led the council at its regular monthly meeting last night, to make some changes in the ordinance relating to parking of automobiles on Main street north of Fourth and south of Third streets. A new ordinance will be prepared prohibiting the parking of cars in the center or on the sides of the streets named.

It was pointed out that on account of the narrowness of Main street north and south of the square that the thoroughfare should remain open at all times and owners of jitneys and other vehicles will be required to park their cars on other streets, preferably the streets around the court house. The proposal to change the present ordinance provoked considerable discussion, but the motion was carried without a dissenting vote.

An ordinance to prohibit the use of the streets to owners of popcorn and lunch wagons was also the subject of argument and discussion, it being the contention of some of the aldermen that it was unfair to make such distinction when the streets were being used by others as a place to stand wagons and other vehicles. The council voted in favor of the proposed ordinance however, which was sponsored by Alderman Maier. The new ordinance resulted from a statement by Mayor Robey that he had been informed that a license was soon to be asked for by parties who were constructing a lunch wagon eight feet wide and sixteen feet long. He was

ITALY IS AROUSED

EVERYWHERE MEN ARE CLAMORING TO GO TO THE FRONT.

READY FOR ONSLAUGHT

Cadorna's Forces Are Prepared to Meet Expected Attack—Germans Fall Back From Aisne.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Rome, Nov. 3.—General Cadorna is now fully prepared to meet the combined Teuton-Austro onslaught that is expected, say advices from the front. The statement says that the Italian line of fortifications extend along the banks of the swollen Tagliamento for miles.

Italy is undergoing a rebirth of patriotism. Everywhere men are clamoring to go to the front. Even the Garibaldi veterans have marched in a body to offer their lives on their country's altar. Thousands of veterans of the present war, interned in hospitals or invalided home, are insisting on returning to their commands.

Berlin, (via London), Nov. 3.—The Germans have retreated from points along the Chemin-des-Dames in the Aisne sector of the front in France, according to the German official communication. The communication gives no reason for the maneuver, but says it was made during Thursday night systematically and without interference by the French troops.

The retirement of the Teutons, admitted by Berlin, indicates they have tired of the terrible ordeal to which they have been subjected by the repeated and fierce attacks of the French in this sector recently. For some time the French artillery has been pounding the line, punctuated at times by infantry attacks which gradually have been forcing the Germans back toward Laon, the important railroad junction, which is the immediate objective of the French thrust.

The extent of the German withdrawal is not indicated by Berlin.

The New York City Campaign.

(By W. C. V.)

The mayoralty campaign in the city of New York takes on more than ordinary interest this year. Elections in New York are always politically interesting, but the conditions are so unusual this year as to give this election next Tuesday a particular general interest. It is one of the most spirited and one of the bitterest campaigns waged in the metropolis in many years.

Political students are watching intently for the Socialist vote. Many of them look for a greatly increased Socialist vote. A great deal of the war legislation has been of a nature to feed the Socialist idea and this, together with the conditions that now exist, with the breaking down of party lines, leads men to think that there may be a considerable movement toward the Socialist candidates.

There are four candidates in Greater New York and the race for second place will be no less interesting than that for first place. The impression has been growing that the Tammany candidate would be elected but that any of the three remaining may be second.

Mayor Mitchell is a candidate for re-election. When he first ran he was backed by the administration to beat Tammany. Last fall, however, it is said that he turned upon Mr. Wilson and voted for Mr. Hughes. This year he secured the nomination from the independent democracy and then, armed with the backing of Theodore Roosevelt, Judge Hughes, former President Taft and the Rockefeller interests, he started out to capture the regular republican nomination. He also had the support of the republican county organization. He was sailing beautifully until, about two weeks before the primary election, former Congressman Bennet entered the race. Mr. Bennet had no arganization back of him, but he is a good campaigner, has a pleasing personality and a keen intellect, and he induced the republican voters to give him the nomination as a regular republican. The regular democracy, which in New York City is Tammany, nominated Judge Hylan of Brooklyn, a man but little known in politics, but exceedingly popular in Brooklyn. The Brooklyn democracy it must be remembered, does not belong to Tammany but is a separate organization. The Socialists nominated Morris Hillquit, one of the delegates who were not permitted to attend the proposed Socialist peace convention at Stockholm, Sweden, last summer.

Mr. Mitchell is a man of ability, bright and shifty, and he has made a very good mayor, especially a New York proper, but the people of Brooklyn, which is the plain people's town, have been much incensed at him because they assert that their interests have been neglected and that they have been ignored and even abused by a silk stocking mayor. Realizing his handicap in having neither the democratic nor the republican nomination, Mitchell has sought to make Americanism the chief issue and to charge his opponents with a lack of patriotism and a lack of sympathy with the war. Assuming that Judge Hylan was his most dangerous opponent, he has been especially severe upon him. Brooklyn has not had a mayor since coming into Greater New York and Judge Hylan is a Brooklyn man. He is accredited with ability and is said to be very popular in Brooklyn. He has defended his patriotism vigorously, has attempted to show that Mitchell has been a rich man's mayor, and has arraigned his administration with evident effect.

Mr. Hillquit is running as an undiluted Socialist and is making an early peace his leading campaign issue. He is reported to be having riproarious crowds at his meetings and is supported by the former bull mooser, Amos Pinchot, and Dudley Field Malone, a former appointee of President Wilson who recently resigned as collector of the port, an $8,000 job. Mr. Bennet seems to be conducting his campaign without any fireworks and is not attracting a great amount of attention at large. Since Roosevelt, Hughes, Taft and the regular republican county organization are still supporting Mitchell in an effort to defeat Tammany, it is generally thought that Bennet will be the last man in the race. He may however spring as great a surprise as he did in the primary.

Altogether it is a campaign of many angles and many surprises. Tammany feels very confident and claims that Mitchell will be the last man under the wire. It is generally believed that Hillquit, the Socialist candidate, will be well up in the race, though his undisguised opposition to a continuance of the war will cost him many votes. The Washington administration is taking no part in this fight, but there is no lack of interest in the capital city as to the outcome.

THE WINTER CHAUTAUQUA

Lyceum Festival Will Open Next Friday Night at the Main Street Methodist Church.

Maryville's Lyceum Festival will start next Friday evening, November 9, and will continue for five nights, excepting Sunday, according to George B. Cutting, advance representative, who was in the city today. The Festival will be held in the Main Street Methodist church and will continue Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

This is sometimes called the winter Chautauqua and much local interest is being taken in the event. Each evening brings an entirely different program.

On Friday evening, The Plymouth Singing Party, a company of five singers will present a program in costume, depicting the days of the Plymouth folks, the Indian period and ending with a program of light and grand opera in evening dress. Among the members of the company is Miss Edna Woolley, who is said to be the greatest singer of Indian songs in the country.

Saturday evening Miss Jane Dillon, a Victor artist, will give a program of miscellaneous readings, entitled, "Shoulders That Stoop." Last season she was on the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua circuit making the larger cities and created a distinct sensation.

The big feature "Little Women," comes Monday evening, presented by a cast of thirteen New York players. Among the players is Marie Pavey, who was in the original cast and created the part of "Jo." No more wholesome, cleaner, sweeter play has ever been presented and along with the lessons it teaches is plenty of good, pure comedy.

Everett Kemp is called the "man with a million dollar laugh," and presents "That Printer of Udell's, or "The Music Master," on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday evening, November 14, The Ridgway Musicians will give a prelude after which Lieutenant Robert Bowman will give his illustrated lecture on the war, bringing pictures which he himself took in the war zone. He has the highest medal the French government ever conferred upon a non-combatant for his bravery and untiring work in the ambulance corps.

Tickets will be on sale at Landon's Music store. Students' tickets will be on sale at all the schools.

TEAM WORK IS NEEDED

social control," said Prof. Cammack, "through the Hoover plan for food control and team work is an absolute necessity. Our success depends on how well we play the great game of life.

"The school is an issue," said the speaker, "for it must impart to the young people and to the people in general a conception of the problems of the war." Prof. Cammack read President Wilson's letters to teachers urging that every teacher in the United States be correctly informed in order to be of the greatest service.

Miss Hettie M. Anthony, of the home economics department presented in an interesting manner some of the problems of the home, pointing out that the home should produce something more valuable than it consumed. "True patriotism," said Miss Anthony, "is not in waving hats, saluting the flag and raising corn, but raising strong, healthy, self-reliant boys and girls. Teach them the need for conservation of energy and power that results from proper feeding and from proper buying of food."

J. H. Frost of Chicago gave an interesting address on the beautification of school grounds and school gardening, using lantern slides to illustrate his talk. Mr. Frost urged that school children and women devote more time to outdoor work, such as gardening and lawn beautification, pointing out the benefit to health that would be derived from it.

Some disappointment was occasioned by the failure of P. G. Holden to arrive in time for his address. Mr. Holden reached the city today and spoke this afternoon at the open conference of farmers and corn growers.

The closing sessions of the association were held this morning when reports of committees and organization for the ensuing year was the order of business.

The visiting teachers are warm in their praise of the treatment they have received during their stay here and have taken an unusual interest in the sessions of the association. With war problems being a part of almost every talk that has been heard, and discussions of how best to co-operate with the government, the results of the three-days meeting will prove far reaching.

Soldiers Sent to Texas Oil Fields—Production Being Curtailed 100,000 Barrels A Day.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

San Antonio, Nov. 3.—Sixteen hundred soldiers have been sent to the oil fields of Texas and Louisiana where a strike has halted production. The movement of the troops is being kept a secret. Some pumping has been resumed under guard, but no drilling is being done. 9,000 men are out and the loss in production is 10,000 barrels a day. General Todd has ordered all saloons in the district closed. The troops have been issued 100 rounds of service ammunition. It is not expected that there will be trouble of any serious nature.

advised by the council to turn down the application in the event it was made before the new ordinance was ready.

Alderman Maier brought to the attention of the council that minors were allowed the use of the pool tables in a Main street pool room. He said he had talked with the proprietor about it and he remonstrated with him, but without avail.

"You have an officer's license," said Mayor Robey. "If you found that he was violating the law you should have arrested him and brought him to the police station."

"I didn't want to take a paid officer's job away from him," answered Mr. Maier, but I think the marshal ought to warn him that his license will be revoked if he continues to permit the practice." The council neglected to take any action in the matter.

Gideon Gillidett made request of the council that his poll tax be remitted, explaining that he was without work and found himself unable to secure sufficient funds to provide for his family. Members of the council knowing the circumstances and the reasonableness of the claim were in favor of relieving him of the obligation, but found it was not in their power to act officially. It was agreed that he be given work on the street when he would receive credit for his poll tax.

The sidewalk proposition, seemingly a difficult one to settle satisfactorily, came up again when Contractor Jas. Kazekes, of Omaha, stated he was ready to sign the contract and furnish bond to start work on the walks that had been advertised would be built by the city. It was found that the specifications for building cement walks had been changed since the ordinances were published, and on the advice of City Attorney McCaffrey, it was decided to prepare new ordinances covering all walks proposed to be built. It was explained that to proceed as matters stood that it might cause embarrassment to Mr. Kazekes if suits should be brought and also that the city might be in error in going ahead with the contracts.

A BIG SENIOR CLASS STUNT

At the "County Fair" at the High School Tonight There's Nothing on the Program but Fun.

A "County Fair" will be given at the High School tonight, beginning at 7 p. m. There will be a main show and nine side shows, giving glimpses of the latest wonders of the world. There will also be doll racks, cat racks, swindling games, refreshment booths, free attractions, etc. The young may feed the animals peanuts, while the old listen to profound theories on how to win the war. Fun for all. Watch for the big parade this afternoon.

This is the general impression a person gets from reading Fair's press agent posters scattered over the city. If advertising pays the stunt will certainly be a success. This is the first stunt of this size and character that has ever been attempted at the High School. It is under the direction of the beginning senior class and they have made extensive preparations in order to make the stunt an annual affair. The parade will contain one hundred and twenty-five students and will be as near like a real circus parade as possible. The admission to the grounds is free and other charges are fixed with the view of not putting too large a dent in your pocketbook.

Fire Destroys One-Room House.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a one-room house belonging to B. A. Jones of Parnell today. The house was located in the west part of Parnell and was occupied by some jockey riders employed by Mr. Jones.

Middle Aged Women

Are Here Told the Best Remedy for Their Troubles.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

North Haven, Conn.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health after everything else had failed when passing through change of life. There is nothing like it to overcome the trying symptoms."—Mrs. FLORENCE ISELLA, Box 197, North Haven, Conn.

MORE HOGS IS NEED

GOVERNMENT URGES FARMERS TO BREED THEIR SOWS NOW.

ARMIES NEED THE BACON

With A Large Crop of Foodstuffs in Sight and Prices to Be Had, Believe the Demand Will Be Met.

To win the war we need more meat To get an increased meat supply quickly hog breeding must be increased materially throughout the country and in certain states an increase of from 25 to 50 per cent in the number of hogs is recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The situation is of greatest importance. We must have plenty of mea for our armies and the armies of the allies in the field, and sufficient meat for our civilian population and the civilian population of the allies at home.

To have the meat, breeding animals must reproduce themselves so that the offspring will be available for slaughter in the future.

Hogs can be increased quicker than any other kind of live stock.

Therefore a larger number of sows must be bred now, than in recent years.

In addition to the fact that there is an imperative demand for more meat as a war measure, it should be taken into consideration that we now have an abundance of feed crops — corn, oats, and barley — with which to produce this necessary increase in the number of hogs. The demand for meat is certain and it will be profitable to the farmer to market some of this heavy grain supply on the hoof.

Pork can be transported more readily and economically to troops in the field than can any other meat. Great supplies of bacon must go to the boys in khaki at the front. Unless now a larger number of sows are bred, the amount of meat we will require next year will not be available.

The estimated number of hogs is 4,000,000 less than it was a year ago in this country; and in face of this we need more hogs than ever before. How can we get them? By breeding sows at once.

The exportation of pork products has increased since the war began and will continue to increase during the length of the war. The foreign countries are devoting their farming energies to food and feed rather than live stock production, but they must have meat and they must get a large part of this supply from us.

During the last three months the price of hogs in the United States has been, on an average, more than twice as much as the average price for the five years from 1911 to 1915. In view of the large crop of feedstuffs in sight, however, it is believed that farmers will see the wisdom of taking every reasonable step to increase the supply of hogs and hog products.

SCOUTS MAKE GOOD RECORD

Burlington Junction Boys Sell Liberty Bonds Totaling $21,000—Five Win the War Medals.

The Liberty Loan campaign came to a successful close in Burlington Junction Saturday evening when the figures at the two banks showed that $28,000 had been subscribed, says the Burlington Junction Post.

Much of the credit belongs to the Boy Scouts, who worked industriously all week, and finished their campaign Saturday by going "over the top" with a big subscription.

Five of the boys sold ten bonds or more and were successful in winning one of the War Service Emblems given by the Government. The five were Carl and Stanley Ferguson, Robert Corken, Robert Barber and Robert Yaple. The total amount of bonds sold by the Scouts was $21,500.

Their individual records were:

Robert Barber, 15 bonds	$7,550
Carl Ferguson, 12 bonds	7,500
Robert Corken, 17 bonds	2,800
Clinton Rhodes, 3 bonds	1,100
Gilbert Greenelsh, 3 bonds	950
Robert Yaple, 14 bonds	900
Stanley Ferguson, 10 bonds	550
Earl Graves, 2 bonds	100
Raymond Harrington, 1 bond	50

Scoutmaster R. D. Corken directed the boys in their campaign and feels a just pride in the successful work of his Scouts, as do the other people of the community.

BUYS PLANT AT GRANT CITY

Maryville Light Company Adds to A String of Towns That Will Be Supplied From Here.

The Maryville Light, Heat & Power Co. has purchased the electric ligh plant at Grant City together with their franchise for lighting the town. For the present until other equipment can be had the town will continue to be supplied by the local plant, after which a transmission line will be run from Parnell from the Maryville plant.

The new purchase is another step in the plan to furnish a number of towns in Northwest Missouri with electric service, seven towns now being supplied directly from Maryville.

EYESIGHT RESTORED BY ARTIFICIAL PUPIL.

Long Beach, Cal., Nov. 3.—As the result of a marvelous operation, J. E. Lenhart of No. 2354 East Fourth St., this city, who has been blind for twenty years, can now see and make trips about town without the aid of his thirteen-year-old daughter, Doris, whom he saw recently for the first time.

Lenhart lost the sight of his left eye when a young man. A film grew over the other eye and caused total blindness. Recently it was decided that there was sight in the right eye if only the light could be admitted. Physicians successfully installed an artificial pupil through which Lenhart sees instead of the original one.

'DON'T GUESS, KNOW'-HOLDEN

Tells Corn Growers How to Raise A Normal Crop—Prize Winners In Canning and Bread Classes.

Besides addressing the teachers at their closing session this morning at the Normal, P. G. Holden, of Chicago, corn expert, was the center this afternoon of a large crowd of interested farmers and corn growers who visited the corn and domestic science display this afternoon. Mr. Holden gave his audience some first hand information as to the surest way to get a normal corn crop. Mr. Holden preaches the doctrine of "know, don't guess," and he urges the farmers to know their seed, to test it and be sure that every grain that was sowed would come up. Mr. Holden told how it could be done with least trouble and expense and proved the result. Most of the farmers wondered why they had not been doing it years ago.

This afternoon the corn exhibits are being sold at auction.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Garland Miller.

Assembly Thursday was given to the beginning seniors to advertise the "County Fair" which will be given tonight at 7 p. m. at the High School. Loren Egley told of the ferocious animals that would be in the parade. Lela Maier, Mary Condon and James Covey and Virgil Rathburn also gave descriptions of the stunt.

The advanced seniors' rings arrived —and were sent back. They were a trifle under weight and heavier rings were ordered.

Rev. E. F. Wright, who is conducting the revival at the Baptist church, addressed the students Friday morning at assembly. He interpreted the Biblical quotation, "I come that ye may have life and have it more abundantly." This was one of the best talks of the season and many students will no doubt embrace the opportunity to hear him talk again.

Go through the thrilling experiences of "The Underground Maze" at the High school tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCoppin returned from Bolckow last night, after a two weeks' visit. They attended a revival there held by the Rev. A. E. Burch, who conducted a successful revival at the Baptist church here two years ago. They report a good attendance and a successful meeting at Bolckow.

Misses Lillian and Mary Goodpasture of Maitland, are guests of Mrs. W. W. Turner of Maryville during the teachers' association meeting.

Music by "All Nations" at the High school tonight.

Miss Myrtle Rasnic entertained at a Hallowe'en dinner Wednesday evening the following guests: Gladys Owen, Frank Roney and Russel Smock.

A TEMPERANCE DAY

NEXT SUNDAY WILL BE OBSERVED IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

BOOZE A WORLD MENACE

Resolutions are Urged to be Sent to State Representatives at Washington at Coming Congress.

November the fourth is World's Temperance Sunday. In Sunday Schools all over the world the pupils in all the classes from primary to many of the oldest men and women enrolled in Sunday Schools all will be engaged in the study of the lesson which is found in I. Kings 20:1-21, entitled, "Defeat Through Drunkenness." The Syrian king with his invading, half-savage army made an overpowering raid upon Israel, destroying villages, farms and orchards; ravaging homes and murdering women and children. The prime purpose of this enemy was to secure the gold and silver of Samaria and the bountiful harvest, regardless of the fate of the people and to make women and children their prey. A careful study shows that no better type of King Alcohol could be conceived than the wicked king of Syria. The power of the original liquor traffic has been so great as to practically make it possible for King Alcohol to say: "Your gold and your silver are mine," and he has not only seized the gold and silver but the harvests of grain and fruit. He has ravaged homes, made victims of women and innocent children and the desolation caused by the liquor traffic in our country may well be compared to an invading army.

Voice of the People.

But the serpent has turned and the voice of the people is being heard today against King Alcohol and his invading army and God is giving victory to the forces of righteousness. The doom of the liquor traffic is sealed. The boys and girls in the Sunday Schools of the world have been saying "The liquor traffic must go" for many years and many of them have arrived at an age where they can say it with their ballot. The politicians are trembling lest national prohibition become the dominant issue of the next election. The thinking world is determined to do away with the menace. The Sunday schools of the world are lined up for the great final victory as never before, and while the young folks of this generation must live and labor through the hardest years of all, which will come after legislation has been enacted, but before the growth of new generations has accustomed all men to the working of this legislation, still we must give thanks for the victories won and the certain prospect of victory yet to be.

Resolution.

Every Sunday School should adopt the following resolutions and forward a copy to each of the representatives of the House of Representatives, giving name of school, city or date and signed by pastor, superintendent and secretary of the school.

"Resolved, that the..... Sunday School of.....members most earnestly pleads for national constitutional prohibition and begs our representatives in congress to vote in favor of submission of the prohibition amendment to the states for ratification."

Other organizations should adopt the same resolution and flood congress with them when the next session opens in December.

PAY WAR TAX CHEERFULLY

Theatre Patrons Dig Up Extra Pennies at Price of Being Amused —a Few Did not Know.

"Have your pennies ready, please," was the admonition that caused patrons at the Empire theatre last night to feel again in their pockets in making the first contribution to the government's war tax fund for amusements. Mrs. W. E. Goforth claims the distinction of being the first person in Maryville to pay the amusement tax.

There was some little confusion in making change, the supply of pennies being exhausted several times during the evening. No one objected to the additional cent and a good deal of fun was had as patrons "kidded" each other. A fe wasked for tickets who did not know about the tax, but readily paid the extra cent when it was explained to them.
